

Standing Committee Activity

Members should be sitting in groups around a table. The following can be copied as is for each table and members asked to simply put the committee name beside each duty. Or if preferred, the standing committees and each duty are cut up and members then would arrange the duties under the appropriate standing committee. Regardless of how it is done the task is to arrange under the proper headings the duties of each standing committee. After an appropriate time has been allotted, then the correct answers are shared. (Give out the corrected sheet and members can correct their own.) A suitable reward always adds a little fun.
